Mrs. Eugene Huntington Ware and Miss Jennette Ware have 7 tables at which this afternoon asked to meet Miss Ware's visitor, Miss Sylvia Huntington, of Fall River, Massachusetts.

The D. D. White club has a business meeting today with Mrs. B. P. Akers. The first game of the season will be played next Monday. Mrs. Akers will be the hostess.

Mrs. C. A. Morse gave a luncheon at the Country club today for the members of the Calidoreen club. The table had a basket filled with asters in the club color, purple, for a centerpiece and covers were laid for twelve. Following the luncheon the club held its first meeting of the season and papers were read by Mrs. C. C. Pusey and Mrs. John Bradley. The members of the Calidoreen club are Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Pusey, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. H. W. Roby, Mrs. A. B. Quinton, Mrs. George W. Crane, Mrs. Charles W. Merrill, Mrs. John C. Harmon, Mrs. C. T. Trapp, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. H. C. Root and Miss Ida Kibbling.

Two Topeka men are interested in the same out of town girl. Recently one of them decided to ask her to come to town for a dance and told a friend of his intention. The friend, who is a Topeka man, asked him what kind of luck he had had and he answered: "Well, my rival beat me to it. He had already asked her but she didn't know whether to come down or not. However, when I told her that I had asked one of my women friends to entertain her while she was in town and that she had consented willingly, she decided to come. So you see we divided the honors—my rival and I. I arranged for her entertainment and he takes her to the party Tuesday afternoon."

The Duplicate Whist club will have its first meeting of the season with Mrs. B. P. Akers Friday.

Mrs. E. A. Austin is entertaining the Nineteenth century club at the Country club this afternoon. It is the first meeting of the year and the programme provided for some business and refreshments of the vacation. Mrs. S. S. Berger, 1421 North Main, is a new member of the club. A few guests, aside from members, were asked today, among them Mrs. John F. Norton, Mrs. W. B. Swan, Mrs. George Harrison, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. Ralph Jones of Green Mountain Falls, Mrs. J. W. Locke of Lebanon, Illinois, and Mrs. Frank Young.

"These people," said a man at a party where a number of middle aged people were displaying themselves playfully, "think that they are demonstrating that a person can be a Christian and still have a good time."

Kansas City Star: Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Roddard left for the city of Washington until the completion of their new home, 3523 Warwick boulevard.

Mrs. Norma Wheeler, 2411 Windsor avenue, will return this evening from Denver and Colorado Springs, where she spent the summer.

The S. R. on the Leavenworth Post is authority for the statement that a handsome bachelor officer at Fort Leavenworth goes a-Kiepping and can be seen almost any day walking shoeless and homeless in country lanes near the post.

A Topeka avenue youngster of 6 years and a man who lives in his neighborhood are great pals. The man is a local Chesterfield brand fan and is enjoying a picnic watermelon spread together and the man, for some slight reason, asked his companion's parson, "O, that's all right," said the little chap carelessly, "you don't have to say 'excuse me' when you're eating out doors sitting on the grass."

Leavenworth Post (Saturday): Mrs. Ira Snyder entertained with a "Kensington" this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Drescher of Topeka. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Anthony, Jr., will leave on Tuesday for New York to attend the automobile races for the Vanderbilt cup.

The boys' choir of a Topeka church recently received prizes and the summer vacation. At the first rehearsal three or four lads whose sun-burned skin spoke eloquently and unmistakably of a summer of basking and swimming, announced to the director that they had only come to explain that they wouldn't begin practicing until the weather was cooler.

Mr. Lee Padlock of Springfield, Missouri, formerly of Topeka, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Padlock of 137 Emmett street, was married in Carthage last week to Miss Madge Straw, also of Springfield. The Rev. E. S. Padlock, of Springfield, a brother of the groom, performed the ceremony. The following account of the wedding is from the Springfield Leader:

The marriage of Mr. Lee O. Padlock and Miss Madge Straw in Carthage today will come as a great surprise to their many friends who had expected the conventional wedding ceremony to be quietly under the impression that they had effectually concealed their movements, but as usual in affairs presided over by Cupid there was no mistaking where and the news took shape and traveled as on the heels of Mercury. Miss Straw is an accomplished young woman, tall, with nut-brown hair shining gold in its high lights, warm brown eyes, and the glorious coloring of the Jacquemont rose. Mr. Padlock stands high in his work as assistant to Mr. Harry John, chief draftsman of the motive power department of the Frisco, and is in addition, instructor of mechanical drawing in the Y. M. C. A. Congratulations and hearty good wishes go out to the young couple who will be at home, 1505 Benton avenue.

"Be sure to notice her feet," said one woman to another who was going to a dinner party given for a pretty and interesting young girl, "because she has such pretty ones and always wears the loveliest shoes and hose to match her gowns."

"Yes," put in her husband, "and if you don't get a good opportunity to look at them otherwise, just pick up the edge of the tablecloth and peek at them in Chelsea." He asked the waiter to strike a match.

On Friday afternoon Pike day was observed at the New Quincy school. The exercises took place in the large assembly room and here the members of the upper grades recited together. Principal E. F. Stanley spoke of the achievements of Zebulon Pike and there were also patriotic songs by the pupils and a recitation appropriate for the occasion by Nina Clark.

It is seldom that a church can show a finer display of fruits, vegetables and grains than was exhibited at the Harvest Home festival at the Baptist church last evening. The north wall of the church was almost entirely covered with tall stalks of corn, the organ and piano were covered with asparagus and pepper plants, while between the windows a line of chestnuts and oaks of the building were crossed of kaffir corn. Distributed effectively over the church were baskets of potatoes, apples, tomatoes, corn, melons and other fruits of the field. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Walter E. Tanner preached a Harvest Home sermon and in the evening the children under twelve years of age were on the program which consisted of recitations and special music by the choir. The fruits and vegetables were the finest and best that could be found, one watermelon alone weighing 98 pounds.

Last Saturday the teachers of Quincy school and a few of their friends were the guests of Miss Jennie Farnsworth at an all day picnic given at Richland. The day was perfect for the affair and one of the enjoyable features of the outing was the scenery from their observation car. Those in the crowd were Principal and Mrs. E. F. Stanley and daughter, Katharine, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hopkins and sons, Russell and Clarence, Misses Minna McCall, Bertie Brown, Frances Smith, Mary Gernon, Elizabeth Woodburn, Olive Owen, Laura Beverly and Jennie Farnsworth.
